1. At present, this board has manuscript in on three long studies on North China, Indochina, and Manchuria. These studies contain a wealth of basic data on these areas useful to the United States Government and its various branches in policy formation and operations. They are being prepared at the request of Joint Chiefs of Staff. Each of these studies is several thousand pages in length and contains 100 to 200 maps and still more photographs. They are being edited and prepared for publication. All copy will go to the printer by 31 December 1945.
